Reality check

From the sources

The work

- CTET Paper II is the paper for teaching Classes VI to VIII, and NVS teachers must also perform responsibilities of the residential system of schooling in addition to normal teaching duties.
- Other day-to-day work is not described in these notices.

Entry requirements

- No notice read names B.A. or B.Sc. as such.
- KVS and NVS ask for a Bachelors/Honours degree with at least 50% in the concerned subject plus a B.Ed. for the Trained Graduate Teacher (TGT), with subject conditions: TGT (Maths) excludes candidates with B.Sc. (Hons.) in Physics or Chemistry, TGT (Science) needs Biology, Life Science, Botany or Zoology for three years, and TGT (Social Studies) needs two of History, Geography, Economics and Political Science.
- The Primary Teacher post needs a pass in CTET Paper-I.
- NCTE refers to graduation with at least 50% marks and a B.Ed. as the minimum qualification.

Trade-offs to consider

- Selected KVS and NVS teachers may be posted anywhere in India with no change of station, NVS teachers must stay in the residential campus, and probation for direct-recruit TGTs is two years.
- The notice read is for the 2025 cycle and is closed.

- This cycle is closed; no later CTET notice was seen on ctet.nic.in on 31 October 2026.

Note:

- Whether a given employer accepts CTET depends on that employer's rules
- The bulletin says qualifying does not confer a right to a job.

The bulletin states that anyone scoring 60% or more is considered TET pass (NCTE rule), and that school managements may give concessions to reserved categories.

Scope:

- CTET September 2026 (22nd edition), exam date 6 September 2026, applications 11.05.2026 to 10.06.2026.
- This cycle is closed; no later CTET notice was seen on ctet.nic.in on 31 October 2026.

Note:

- The bulletin does not itself print a lower pass mark for reserved categories
- It leaves concessions to the school management.

CTET is mandatory for teachers appointed from 6 March 2012 to teach Classes I to VIII in CBSE-affiliated schools, who must pass CTET or a TET.

Scope:
